GRADE K-1

WCSD 2018

Washoe County School District

Every Child, By Name And Face, To Graduation

Council of the Great City Schools

COMPONENT 1: TEXT COMPLEXITY

Assessing text complexity in kindergarten and grade one is more a qualitative than quantitative process. The guiding statements provided in this section will examine text complexity in order to differentiate quality and richness among the texts—particularly anchor texts—WCSD is considering for adoption. Anchor texts are materials designed to serve as the central unifying tool for the development of reading comprehension. While evaluations of text complexity formally begin with grade two, student reading materials, texts, and other materials in kindergarten and grade one need to create the conditions for rich and robust discussion and writing for ALL students (struggling readers, students with identified academic disabilities, English Learners, students who are performing at grade level, and advanced students).

GUIDING STATEMENTS	SPECIFIC EVIDENCE FROM THE TEXT/MATERIALS	EVIDENCE RATING
Literature and Informational Text C1a. The texts present rich and embedded relationships between and among characters, ideas, and concepts that are conveyed through masterful style and structure. (See exemplars in CCSS, Appendix B.)	Anchor Text Stellaluna study takes place over the course of 13 lessons. Discussions, analysis, and writing focus vary from retelling, story events, character relationships, events in order, character details, comparing characters, setting, sensory details, word choice, and central message. Paired books and poems from Text Collections, small group close reads from Sleuth, and Leveled Text Library are all topically related.	● 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak
C1b. The materials consistently include short, challenging, and complete texts that contain rich content, ideas, and academic language worthy of close reading. (See exemplars in CCSS, Appendix B.)	Anchor Text and Supporting Text centred lessons include daily close read lessons. Additionally, options for close reading extensions are available through the Sleuth grade level texts for small group study.	● 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak

C1c. The materials consistently provide opportunities to read both literary and informational texts. For student reading materials in kindergarten and grade one, refer to the Alignment Criteria for Foundational Skills (4a-4d of this document).Read- aloud anchor texts should fall within or above the grades two through three text complexity band.	Anchor Texts and Supporting Texts have a balance of literary and informational texts. Each unit has at least one Anchor Text that falls within or above grades 2 and 3 text complexity band.	○ 4) extensive ● 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak

OVERALL RATING: ○ 4) extensive evidence ○ 3) sufficient evidence ○ 2) some evidence ○ 1) weak evidence

SUMMARY STATEMENT (Explain why the materials received this overall rating):

COMPONENT 2: QUESTIONS AND TASKS

At least 80% of all questions in the submission are high-quality text-dependent and text-specific questions. The overwhelming majority of these questions reference specific text and draw students' attention to the text they are reading. Text-dependent questions that address the kindergarten and grade one standards will be described in greater depth in Alignment Criterion II.

ALIGNMENT CRITERION I: RANGE AND QUALITY OF TEXTS

Materials must reflect a wide range of text types and genres, as required by the standards. In kindergarten and grade one, and across all other grade levels, there should be ample texts on topics that can support sustained study. Knowledge built at one grade level should be expanded in other grade levels. Topics should take into account individual student academic needs and interests in order to foster independent reading. It is also imperative that the included topics and themes are compelling enough to read multiple times and are aligned to district needs. Pay particular attention to the guidance provided in Appendix B of the Common Core State Standards.

GUIDING STATEMENTS	SPECIFIC EVIDENCE FROM THE TEXT/MATERIALS	EVIDENCE RATING
Literature and Informational Text 1a. The range of materials, both print and digital, allows teachers and students to explore content that coherently and systematically builds knowledge and vocabulary across subjects, themes, and topics. This applies especially to texts read aloud by the teacher, which should promote speaking and listening about topics under study in kindergarten and grade one. (See CCSS Appendix B for examples of grade-level knowledge demands.) Text sets also address a wide variety of student interests, and are likely to foster independent reading.	Knowledge is built on through thematically connected Anchor ?Texts, Supporting Texts, Leveled Readers, and Close Reading Resources "Sleuth". Vocabulary is built upon through a focus on sets of rare Tier II and Tier III words that unlock meaning, build knowledge, and help internalize word-learning strategies. Leveled Readers address a wide variety of student interest from relatable real-life things like space, our country, and those around us. Additionally, the "Little Celebrations" Leveled readers have suggested partner books that allow for students to further explore topics. Anchor Texts are culturally diverse and include subject integration with science, social studies, and math.	● 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak
1b. Text sets include a diverse range of high quality, culturally-responsive and appropriate topics and themes. Texts from diverse cultures reflect the same high-quality features that are demanded of all texts.	Leveled Readers address a wide variety of grade level appropriate topics and themes that connect to Anchor Texts. These texts are culturally diverse in who is represented in pictures and culturally responsive through diversity of race, age, and disablity.	● 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak

1c. Materials include a rich and diverse sampling of literary texts, including poems and stories with relevant illustrations.	Anchor Texts, Supporting Texts, and Leveled Readers include a diverse sampling of literary texts. Each unit includes poems that relate to the unit topic.	● 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak
1d. The range of informational texts include: • At least two selections on the same topic • Selections with various text features such as headings, tables of contents, glossaries, and illustrations	Informational texts can be found in Anchor Texts, Supporting Texts, Leveled Readers, and Close Read Texts. A variety of text features can be found in these materials including glossaries, picture index, pronunciation guide, table of contents, maps, headings, realia pictures, labels, resource lists to learn more, diagrams,	● 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak

OVERALL RATING: ● 4) extensive evidence ○ 3) sufficient evidence ○ 2) some evidence ○ 1) weak evidence

SUMMARY STATEMENT (Explain why the materials received this overall rating):
It is apparent the time and effort put into choosing complex text for Anchor Texts. This is supported through the resource provided for teachers called the Scaffolded Strategies Handbook. Also noted is the attention to college and career readiness through digging deeply into complex text.

ALIGNMENT CRITERION II. QUESTIONS AND TASKS SUPPORT STUDENT LEARNING

Questions posed to students in the materials under review should support student learning in building reading comprehension, in finding and producing the textual evidence to support responses, and in developing grade-level academic language. Texts for kindergarten and grade one students must include text-dependent questions that require the use of higher order thinking skills. There should be a range of questions that require students to attend to the author's language as his/her vehicle for conveying meaning, as well as to support specific inferences with explicit details from the text. Most questions should require that the student refer to the text in several places in order to devise an answer—rather than asking only literal, "right there" types of questions (CCSS).

GUIDING STATEMENTS	SPECIFIC EVIDENCE FROM THE TEXT/MATERIALS	EVIDENCE RATING
Literature and Informational Text 2a. Key Ideas and Details. Questions and tasks require students to explicitly attend to the text, including, but not limited to: • Asking and answering questions about key details in the text • Retelling familiar stories, including key details • Identifying and describing characters, settings, and major events in a story • Identifying the main topic of a text • Describing the connection between two individuals, events, or ideas in a text	To ensure students are attending to the text for key ideas and details each lesson has a close read component that includes a variety of DOK questions. For students who can easily ask and answer questions about the Anchor Text, Reading Analysis Extensions are included in the Small Group Options. Likewise, there is a Reading Analysis Support for students who struggle asking and answering questions surrounding the Anchor Text. Students have ample opportunities to answer questions and complete tasks centered around Key Ideas and Details in all text types provided.	● 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak
2b. Craft and Structure. Questions and tasks require students to explicitly attend to the text, including, but not limited to: • Determining the meanings of unknown words and phrases in stories, poems, and informational texts • Recognizing and explaining the differences between common types of text both literary (such as storybooks and poems) and informational • Naming the author and illustrator and describing their roles in telling the story or presenting ideas • Recognizing and using various features in informational texts (such as headings or glossaries) to locate information	Tasks such as Reading Analysis and Language Analysis require students to attend to craft and structure. This is further supported through writing lessons and tasks.	● 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak

2c. Integration of Knowledge and Ideas. Questions and tasks require students to explicitly attend to the text, including, but not limited to: • Comparing and contrasting the experiences of characters in stories • Describing the key ideas conveyed in illustrations • Identifying reasons authors give to support points and the similarities between two texts on the same topic	Questions found in the Turn and Talks and Close Reads for each lesson support the integration and knowledge and ideas described here. Additionally, examples of tasks found in the Reading Analysis component of lessons.	◉ 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak

SUMMARY STATEMENT (Explain why the materials received this overall rating):

ALIGNMENT CRITERION III. WRITING TO SOURCES AND RESEARCH

The writing standards for each grade level highlight distinctive expectations about student writing. In kindergarten and grade one, students perform age-appropriate writing tasks and assignments with support and guidance from the teacher. For details on text types and purposes, production and distribution of writing, research to build and present knowledge, and the range of writing in kindergarten and grade one, see the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and Literacy. The metrics below show key characteristics to look for in your review of materials.

GUIDING STATEMENTS	SPECIFIC EVIDENCE FROM THE TEXT/MATERIALS	EVIDENCE RATING
3a. Writing assignments are explicitly connected to what students are reading, and materials a reorganized to elicit responses to sources in age-appropriate ways. This might include activities such as dictation or making pictures to express thoughts in addition to writing, with support from the teacher.	In the Reader's and Writer's Journal writing in connected to Benchmark Vocabulary taken directly from the Anchor Text. Additionally, students have ample opportunities to write in Response to Reading in this journal. Writing opportunities connected to Close Read are included. All writing lessons are connected to the content or genre of what they are reading centred around narrative, opinion, and informative/ explanatory modes of writing.	● 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak
3b. Text-dependent questions generally create the foundation for students to address culminating writing tasks, including: • Opinion writing, in which students introduce a topic or name a book, state an opinion, and supply a reason for the opinion (using a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing at the kindergarten level) • Informative/explanatory writing, in which students name a topic and supply facts about the topic (using a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing at the kindergarten level) • Narrative writing, in which students recount two or more appropriately sequenced events, including details about what happened (using a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing at the kindergarten level)	Culminating writing tasks are found in each unit. For example, Unit 1 Module A focuses on Narrative writing. The performance-based assessment is a text-dependent narrative task that includes a topic specific rubric. Often the Teach and Model portion of the writing lesson poses text-depended questions that set the foundation for culminating writing tasks.	● 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak
3c. Reading materials can serve as models to explore writer's craft and support student production of grade-level opinion, informational, and narrative writing.	A variety of reading materials serve as models to explore writer's craft and support student production of all 3 modes of writing. Some examples are found in the "Set the Purpose" and "Teach and Model" portions of the Writing Workshop. Specifically, text structure is taught by reviewing the text structure used in the Anchor Text.	● 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak

3d. Materials include explicit support to teachers, either in the teacher's edition or classroom materials, for writing instruction linked to the kindergarten and grade one writing standards, including: • Focusing on a topic, responding to questions from peers, and adding details to strengthen writing as needed • Exploring and starting to use a variety of digital tools to produce and publish writing, including in collaboration with peers	Writing Workshops are very explicit for teachers by specifically referring to the mode of writing, providing script that is realistic and noted in another color, The components of the writing lesson help to guide the teacher with a clear understanding of the end result for students. Questioning is built into writing lessons in many ways and help to foster an understanding of writing for an audience. Students can write, illustrate, and publish their own digital storybooks and projects by using the resource TikaTok.com. Additionally, the Reader's and Writer's Journal is available in a digital portfolio to assign to students.	◉ 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak
3e. Materials provide opportunities and resources for students to participate in shared research and writing projects, including: • Recalling information from experiences • Gathering information from provided sources	There is a Research and Study Skills Scope and Sequence that is very explicit in its gradual release model. In the Informative/ Explanatory Writing workshops the "research" component is labeled and clearly noted. Resources include the Anchor Text and/or the Supporting Text, library, Leveled Readers, encyclopedia, magazine/periodical, technology (both on- and offline electronic media.	◉ 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak

SUMMARY STATEMENT (Explain why the materials received this overall rating):

ALIGNMENT CRITERION IV: FOUNDATIONAL SKILLS

Effective instruction on foundational skills in kindergarten and grade one includes explicit and systematic lessons and diagnostic support in concepts of print, the alphabetic principle, phonics, phonological awareness, vocabulary development and word recognition, syntax, and reading fluency. Students must be able to recognize and pronounce words fluently in order to focus on the major goal of reading, which is comprehension. Building these foundational skills must be contextualized within the materials.

4a. Materials provide teachers with guidance and support for explicit and systematic instruction of the kindergarten and grade one Reading Standards for Foundational Skills (CCSS), including concepts of print, phonological awareness, letter recognition, phonics, word recognition, and reading fluency in a research-based and transparent progression. (Refer to CCSS Appendix A for the research detailing the advancement of foundational reading skills.)	A research based Phonics and Reading Scope and Sequence is provided. Foundational skills are taught through pre-teaching in daily mini-lessons, both small and whole group, and follow a gradual release model. This is accomplished through a 3 step process that in incorporates formative assessments and built in supports. Conventions of Standard English 5a. There is evidence that grade-level grammar and conventions are addressed using an integrated and contextualized approach in daily instruction. Materials and tasks in kindergarten and grade one are designed to help build student understanding and use of: • Upper- and lower-case letters • Question words • Recognition and use of end punctuation • Frequently occurring nouns in kindergarten, and common, proper, and possessive nouns by grade one • Frequently occurring verbs in kindergarten, and use of verbs to convey past, present, and future actions in grade one • Complete sentence in kindergarten, and compound declarative, interrogative, imperative, and exclamatory sentences in grade one • Capitalization of the first word in a sentence in kindergarten, and of dates and names of people in grade one • Correct spelling, by sounding out simple words phonetically in kindergarten and applying common spelling patterns to spell words in grade one Grade One • Regular plural nouns, with matching verbs • Personal, possessive, and indefinite pronouns • Conjunctions and determiners, such as articles or demonstratives • Frequently occurring adjectives	This is illustrated in the Language Arts Scope and Sequence under Writing (Conventions), Written and Oral English Language Conventions (Grammar and Usage in Speaking and Writing Sentences, Usage and Mechanic in Writing), and Spelling Scope and Sequence,	◉ 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak

SUMMARY STATEMENT (Explain why the materials received this overall rating):

ALIGNMENT CRITERION VI: SPEAKING AND LISTENING

To be CCSS-aligned, speaking and listening must be integrated into lessons, items, and tasks. These must reflect a progression of communication skills required for eventual college- and career-readiness, as outlined in the standards. If kindergarten and grade one students are able to listen to others, discuss what they are learning, and voice their own confusion or misunderstandings, their learning becomes deeper and more meaningful. They are exposed, at this level, to points of view that may differ from their own, and they learn how to agree and disagree, express their own thoughts, and ask questions when they don't understand or need more clarification.

GUIDING STATEMENTS	SPECIFIC EVIDENCE FROM THE TEXT/MATERIALS	EVIDENCE RATING
6a. Comprehension and Collaboration. Materials provide a frame that guides student participation in academic conversations by: • Agreeing on rules for discussion, taking turns speaking • Confirming understanding of texts read aloud • Asking and answering questions to clarify and gather information	The Language Arts Scope and Sequence outlines Listening and Speaking specific to Speaking Skills and Strategies and Speak for a purpose. These opportunities are embedded in to the daily instruction.	◉ 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak
6b. Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas. Materials include tasks that promote oral responses in a range of collaborative discussions, and support students in: • Describing people, places, things, and events • Using visual displays to add details • Speaking audibly and completing sentences	These skills are embedded into both reading and writing instruction.	◉ 4) extensive ○ 3) sufficient ○ 2) some ○ 1) weak

SUMMARY STATEMENT (Explain why the materials received this overall rating):

ALIGNMENT CRITERION VII: SCAFFOLDING AND SUPPORTS

While scaffolds are not a part of the standards themselves, it is important to support teachers in meeting the needs of the range of students in their classrooms. In order to meet the reading, speaking, and writing needs of all kindergarten and grade one students, the materials must include supports for students to apply concepts of print, phonics, vocabulary development, syntax, and fluency in comprehending texts. Supports and scaffolds should draw students back to the text and provide strategies for vocabulary acquisition. All scaffolding and supports require ongoing formal and informal assessments that provide multiple opportunities for students to demonstrate their proficiency and inform instruction.

Scaffolding is not just intended for struggling students, but also for students who are ready for above grade- level work. As text complexity increases, and tasks get increasingly challenging, the need for appropriate scaffolds for above grade- level access is equally important.

GUIDING STATEMENTS	SPECIFIC EVIDENCE FROM THE TEXT/MATERIALS	EVIDENCE RATING
7a. The texts promote differentiated instruction and instructional conversations about text to support student learning of: • Academic language • Linguistic frames • Repeated grammatical structures and language	Extensive work has been done to help the teacher make the Anchor and Support Texts accessible through the Scaffolded Strategies Handbook.
