

THE SONG THAT NATURE SINGS

Vocal
Range

Words and Music by RUTH ELAINE SCHRAM

③ - Vocal Demo

① Expressively, not in strict tempo (♩ = ca. 78-82)

mp

In

5

ev - 'ry - thing there is beau - ty; a hint of love, a form of grace. Though it may be hard to see, e - ven hard - er to be - lieve,

8 mf

mf

11 20 poco rall. mp a tempo

ev - 'ry - thing in na - ture has its place. And in ev - 'ry - thing there is

poco rall. mp a tempo

14 mf

won - der; a mys - ter - y to be un - done new dis -

mf

17

cov - er - ies to find; sim - ple pleas - ures re - de - signed; all things old and new be - neath the

(21) rall. f a tempo

20 rall. f a tempo

sun. Have you ev - er chased the wind? Can you

23 rall. a tempo

tell where it will go, or where it's been? If you could see the earth through its

rall. a tempo

26 rall. mf

eyes, do you think that it would come as a sur - prise that in

rall. mf

(22) a tempo

29 a tempo

ev - 'ry-thing there is mu - sic? A mel - o - dy, a bit of

a tempo

32 rall. a tempo

song; Though it may not meet your ear, if you tune your heart to hear,

35 rall. a tempo

you will rec - og - nize and sing a - long the song that na - ture sings.

38 mp rall. e dim.

You will rec - og - nize and sing a - long

41 pp p

the song that na - ture sings.