

ART 1 - 2 SYLLABUS

Ms. Yeom #146

Email: hyeom@washoeschools.net

Website: <https://www.washoeschools.net/hyeom> (Please visit the website for more information.)

This is a studio class where students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner to foster an effective learning environment as well as to acquire skills and knowledge through active participation in classroom activities. Student's grade comes from BOTH process (work ethic following instructions & rules) and product (assignments & exams). Student behavior will greatly affect their learning and class grade.

Course Overview:

This is a year-long course to earn 1 credit of humanities required for graduation. It is a prerequisite to all higher level courses in the Fine Arts program. The main art concepts covered in this course are the Elements and Principles of Art and Drawing on the Right Side of the Brain. Students will explore the basic techniques in drawing, painting, ceramics, and mixed media.

Course Requirements:

Lab fee $10.00/year, Zipper bag (#2 pencils, erasers, & ball-point pen), Reference photos (10pts/each), & Student conduct

- The fee is used to cover materials that students will use and/or keep. Please pay the fee ASAP and bring the receipt.
- Reference photos: an animal photo (B/W), a landscape (color), and a portrait (B/W) Late photos - No credit

Grade:

Issues: Plagiarism & Vandalism

Assignments (Class work & Homework) – 50%, Studio Performance (Participation) – 35 %, Final Exam – 15%

Assignments may be redone for a better grade, due the following week. Late work will receive 50% credit.

Students will need to have access to MS Teams for digital assignments.

- Assignments; Assignments are graded based on requirements & rubric.
- General criteria for artwork - Originality/Creativity, Craftsmanship, Quality and Effort will affect each assignment grade.
- Some assignments will not be able to make up if they are time sensitive; e.g., pre-test and/or one-day exercise
- Digital assignment must be turned in by due date/time. Any tech. issues should be communicated as early as possible.
- Participation (wkly pts): Staying on task most of the time, Following instructions & rules, Being productive & responsible
- Unexcused tardy and misbehavior will affect participation points. Participation will be reflected on the citizenship grade.
- Final Exam: Written exam & project. * Keep all class notes & work to study for exams.
- Extra credit: Parent Night (Fall), Fine Arts Night (Spring), and Scholastic Art Competition (December).

Attendance and Makeup Work:

Consistent attendance is absolutely crucial to academic success in a studio class. All instruction will be given at the beginning/in the middle of the class and will not be repeated in class for late/absent students. It is student's responsibility to request make-up work on the first day after he/she returns. Make-up work must be completed and turned in within two weeks for full credit, and late make-up after two-week mark will receive 50% credit. Class hour should not be used for make-up work. Students may use open-lab hours at lunch on Wednesday or after school on Fridays (An appointment is required).
