- Participation (5pts/class): Staying on task most of the time, following class rules & instructions, and being productive & responsible
 - * Absence, tardy, technology violation, and/or misbehavior will affect participation points & citizenship grade.
 - * Participation grade will be reflected on the citizenship grade.
- Final Exam: Written exam & project. * Keep all class notes & work to study for exams.
- Extra credit: Parent Night (Fall), Fine Arts Night (Spring), and Scholastic Art Competition (December).

Attendance and Makeup Work:

- Consistent attendance is absolutely crucial to academic success in a studio class.
- All instructions and activities will be given throughout the class, but will not be repeated for late/absent students during the class.
- It is the student's responsibility to obtain the make-up assignment from Teams>Distance Learning or request it before/on the first day of return.
- Class hours should not be used for make-up work.
- The make-up assignments must meet requirements, be completed, and turned in within two weeks for full credit.
- Any make-up work turned in late after the two-week mark will receive 60% credit.
- Missing assignment(s) and participation points will remain as Incomplete/Missing until they are made up. Participation can be made up during lunch by working on the missing assignment(s).
- Time-sensitive assignments will not be available for make-up, and it will stay as Missing (0pts) if it's not turned in on/by due date/time. Time-sensitive assignments are as follows, but not limited to: pre-test, studio activities, references for in-class lessons, and online assignments through Teams/Forms.
