

Use these Second Step resources to re-establish relationships, re-build community and re-connect with students as they transition back to hybrid learning from full distance learning.

Second Semester Community Building Resources

Second Step Remote Learning Advisory Guide	Synchronous and asynchronous check-ins, check-outs, class challenges and class meetings used to gauge students' well-being and establish community.
WCSD SEL Re-entry Resources	Strategies to get to know your students by building community and relationships when returning to school.
Second Step Advisory Starter Pack	Connect while collectively processing feelings with class meetings, strengthen relationships through class challenges and empower student voice during service learning projects.
Second Step Community Re-Building Unit	5 lessons to foster positive classroom and school community after returning from full distance learning. Collaboratively problem solve to navigate the return to school through identifying challenges and personal values.
Second Step Mid-Year Activity Pack	45 class meetings and challenges covering a variety of topics for k-8 learners. Activities can be easily adapted to in-person, remote or hybrid learning.
Second Step and Teaching Tolerance Alignments	Lessons and resources that support Civil Rights and Me Lessons and Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS codes) stating every child is entitled to a safe and respectful learning environment free of bullying and harassment. Aligned Second Step lessons are hyperlinked to easy access to Teaching Tolerance