

Reimagine what's possible

You're a great teacher. You stay curious and you want your students to be curious too. Not to mention energized, inspired, and motivated. That's why it's time to pursue professional development or a degree program with Capella University. We understand you need learning formats that fit your lifestyle and a support system that's there for you every step of the way.

Reach your highest potential with professional development

Capella's 20+ free PD courses are all online and self-paced, so you can master instructional technology, personalized learning, and teacher leadership for instructional coaching on a schedule that works for you.

- Online flexibility – Get professional development anytime, from any device.
- Earn free clock hours – Earn 25-50 clock hours toward your required PD, for free.*
- Immediate applicability – Gain knowledge, skill, and strategies you can use right away in your classroom.
- Graduate credit available – Apply your professional development courses toward earning graduate credit from Capella*

*Additional requirements and fees apply when pursuing graduate credit. State regulations vary regarding salary benefits and continuing education. It is the learner's responsibility to understand and comply with requirements for their state, which may include pre-approval of qualified professional development opportunities.

Education degrees and programs

Capella's master's in education programs help you effect positive change in the classroom and improve student engagement. In addition, our online PhD, EdD, and EdS programs offer pathways to leadership in education.

- MEd in Teaching and Learning
- MS in Education, Innovation, and Technology
- MS in Education with a choice of 10 program specializations, including curriculum and instruction, early childhood education, leadership in educational administration, and more

“As my courses continued in my master’s program, I started to see a shift in myself. I realized that I not only want to make a difference in the lives of my students but also to empower the parents and community to contribute to making a difference in the schools.”

-Brittany Lee, MS in Education
