JANUARY 27-31 WEEKLY NEWS

Discovery Museum Field Trip

The field trip is next week! Thank you to all who have turned in the permission form and the money.

MAP and Conferences

I have put a filled in copy of the confernece schedule in this folder. If you would like to meet and haven't turned in a sheet yet, just dojo me about when you want to meet or put your name on the schedule and turn it back into me.

Independent Readers

I am sending home the binders this week. Please have your child read a few poems to you and return the binder by Friday. Thanks!

Rainbow Words

Great job working with your child on their word list! Here are the students who passed a new list this week: Orange: August! Green: Giana! Blue: Milo! Gray: Phoenix!

Book Orders

I have placed the book order. I am sending home a new book order that will be due on February 21.

Valentine's Day

We will be handing out valentines on Friday, February 14. We have 25 students in the class (so you would just have to bring 24). You do not have to bring valentines, but if you bring them, please make sure you have enough for each person. Please have your child write their name on each valentine. We will not address them to individual students as it would take way to long to hand them out.

Upcoming Events

Febraury 5: Discovery Museum Field Trip

February 14: Valentine's Day

April 24: Sacramento and Fairytale Town Field Trip
