

AACT Students Among Top Business Students in the Country

Twenty students at The Academy of Arts, Careers and Technology scored among the top business students nationwide on rigorous exams to test their business knowledge. The exams are part of the school's High School of Business™ program, a national accelerated business administration program of MBA Research and Curriculum Center. Over 6,000 students from across the nation participated in the program during the 2021-22 school year.

Receiving top scores from AACT were:

Grace	Chatham * Two Exams
William	Vavra * Two Exams
Ivan	Long * Two Exams
Cole	Swanson
Samantha	Alano * Two Exams
Jacob	Frazier * Two Exams
Nicholas	Hilson * Two Exams
Emily	Tanner
Trevor	Mundt * Two Exams
Thie	Harthono * Two Exams
Reid	Wallace * Two Exams
William	Knobel
Reza	Rahimzadeh * Two Exams
Hannah	Figurski * Two Exams
Natalie	Sherwood * Two Exams
Morgan	Hauenstein * Two Exams
Naomi	Ramos
Lola	Gray
Ellyn	Pillers
Addisyn	Hansen

Students participating in High School of Business complete real, hands-on business projects through a series of six courses. The program also includes observational internships, opportunities to earn college credit, and local oversight via a steering team of college faculty, business professionals, and school personnel.

High School of Business is a program of MBA Research & Curriculum Center, a non-profit organization specializing in educational research and the development of business and marketing curriculum for high schools and colleges across the U.S. The accelerated program is designed for college-bound students with interest in business administration careers, such as marketing, finance, entrepreneurship, or management. For more information about the national organization, visit MBAResearch.org/HSB.