

World Language

Spanish

Course Name	Spanish 1-2
Course #	4611/4612
Credit	.5 credit/semester, Language Arts credit
Length	Year
Grades	9-11
Prerequisite	None
Cost to student	None

This beginning course in the Spanish language will develop fundamental skills in understanding, speaking, reading, and writing the language, as well as understanding and appreciating the culture of Spanish-speaking peoples. Students will learn the basics of communicating in Spanish, and also study various Hispanic cultures.

Course Name	Spanish 3-4
Course #	4613/4614
Credit	.5 credit/semester, Language Arts Credit
Length	Year
Grades	9-12
Prerequisite	Completion of Spanish 1-2
Cost to student	None

This is a second-year continuation course in the fundamentals of Spanish conversation and language structure with emphasis on the acquisition of vocabulary and grammatical principles. Students will complete daily homework assignments and must participate in class activities.

Course Name	Spanish Literacy 3-4
Course #	4653/4654
Credit	.5 credit/semester, Language Arts Credit
Length	Year
Grades	9-12
Prerequisite	Oral proficiency in Spanish
Cost to student	None

Spanish Literacy 3-4 is taught in Spanish. The purpose of this course is to enable students whose heritage language is Spanish to become bilingual; develop, maintain, and enhance proficiency in their home language. The emphasis of this class will be on grammar, speaking, listening, reading and writing. This class will provide students detailed grammar explanation and practical exercised as well as new vocabulary that will teach them standard Spanish and make them aware of certain dialects and other variations from standard Spanish. In addition, this class will improve students' ability to express themselves in written Spanish by reviewing and practicing verb forms and tense usage. Spanish for Spanish Speakers 3-4 qualify for World Language credit.

Course Name	Spanish 5-6 (H)
Course #	4615/4616
Credit	.5 credit/semester, Arts & Hum/Occ. Ed credit
Length	Year
Grades	9-12
Prerequisite	Completion of Spanish 3-4
Cost to student	None

This is an honors Spanish language course, which continues in the fundamentals of Spanish conversation and language structure. This course fulfills the Humanities requirement for graduation. Students must participate in class activities, complete homework and in-class assignments, and want to increase their vocabulary in Spanish.

Course Name	Spanish Literacy 5-6 (H)
Course #	4655/4656
Credit	.5 credit/semester, elective credit
Length	Year
Grades	9-12
Prerequisite	SNS 3-4, or teacher recommendation
Cost to student	None

Spanish Literacy 5-6 is taught in Spanish. The purpose of this course is to enable students whose heritage language is Spanish to become bilingual; develop, maintain, and enhance proficiency in their home language. The emphasis of this class will be on grammar, speaking, listening, reading and writing. This class will provide students detailed grammar explanation and practical exercised as well as new vocabulary that will teach them standard Spanish and make them aware of certain dialects and other variations from standard Spanish. In addition, this class will improve students' ability to express themselves in written Spanish by reviewing and practicing verb forms and tense usage. Spanish for Native Speakers 5-6 qualify for World Language credit.

Course Name	Advanced Placement Spanish Language & Culture
Course #	4641/4642
Credit	.5 credit/semester, Arts & Hum/Occ. Ed credit
Length	Year
Grades	11-12
Prerequisite	Completion of Spanish 5-6 or teacher recommendation
Cost to student	Cost of AP exam (Up to $87 depending on funding)

The Advanced Placement Program in Spanish is intended for those who have chosen to develop their proficiencies in this language without special emphasis on literature. Students who enroll in AP Spanish should already have knowledge of the language and culture of Spanish speaking people and should have attained an appropriate proficiency in listening comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing. This level stresses oral skills, composition, and grammar. Such a course emphasizes the use of Spanish for active communication. All students who enroll in AP Spanish must take the AP exam in May.

Course Name	Advanced Placement Spanish Literature
Course #	4643/4644
Credit	.5 credit/semester, Arts & Hum/Occ. Ed credit
Length	Year
Grades	11-12
Prerequisite	Completion of AP Spanish Language
Cost to student	Cost of AP exam (Up to $87 depending on funding)

This class is an advanced class that covers the major movements in Hispanic and Peninsular literature from the medieval period to the 20th century. Students will read all of the required readings from the AP Spanish Literature list which represent works from four major genres: narrative, poetry, essay and theater. Students will actively engage with text, understand the background in which it was written, think critically about its themes and message, and analyze the author's purpose. They will also write interpretive and analytical compositions and work to develop their academic writing skills in Spanish. This class will be conducted exclusively in Spanish. All students who enroll in AP Spanish must take the AP exam in May.

French

Course Name	French 1-2
Course #	4551/4552
Credit	.5 credit/semester, Language Arts credit
Length	Year
Grades	9-11
Prerequisite	None
Cost to student	None

This beginning course in the French language will develop fundamental skills in understanding, speaking, reading, and writing the language, as well as understanding and appreciating the culture of French-speaking peoples. Students will learn the basics of communicating in French, and also study various French cultures

Course Name	French 3-4
Course #	4553-4554
Credit	.5 credit/semester, Language Arts credit
Length	Year
Grades	9-11
Prerequisite	French 1-2
Cost to student	None

This full year course is designed for the second year French student. It provides continued practice in all four skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Students become increasingly familiar with, and proficient in, cultural and linguistic aspects of the language.

Course Name	French 5-6
Course #	4555-4556
Credit	.5 credit/semester, Language Arts credit
Length	Year
Grades	11-12
Prerequisite	French 3-4
Cost to student	None

This full year course is designed for the third year French student. The course emphasizes greater fluency, better pronunciation and intonation, and improved skill in understanding native speakers. It also focuses on composition skills and review of French phonology, syntax, and grammar. The course enables the student to gain a greater awareness of the cultural contributions of French speaking world in art, music and literature.

Course Name	AP French Language
Course #	4581-4582
Credit	.5 credit/semester, Language Arts credit
Length	Year
Grades	11-12
Prerequisite	French 5-6 (H)
Cost to student	None

The Advanced Placement French Language and Culture course is designed to prepare French students for the AP French Language and Culture exam. The goal of AP French is to develop students' communicative ability in the three modes of communication (Interpersonal, Interpretive and Presentational) through the use of authentic materials. This course will develop students' listening comprehension and reading skills using different kinds of authentic texts and aural materials. AP French will hone students' ability to express themselves in both written and oral French at the level of intermediate to pre-advanced range. These skills will be practiced through the study of cultural aspects of the French and francophone world in six major categories set by the College Board. Students are required to take the AP exam in May. All AP exams have a cost associated with them.