

Tracy Raggio Chew
Teacher

Ms. Tracy Raggio Chew has a bachelor's degree in Child Development from Sacramento State University. She earned her dual teaching certificate from the University of Nevada, Reno as well as a Master's Equivalency from University of the Pacific. She has been teaching since 1993. She began her career teaching a self-contained Special Education class, grades 1-6 at Elmcrest Elementary and then taught fourth grade there for eight years before transferring to Westergard. She taught second grade for one year and then went back to teaching fourth grade.

Her passion lies in teaching the curriculum for fourth grade as she is a 4th generation native Nevadan and her father, Bill Raggio, was the longest serving State Senator for Nevada.

She loves spending her spare time with her family which includes a daughter, son-in-law, 2 grandsons, and her son. She also enjoys reading, camping, friends and spending time at her condo at Tahoe.
