Counseling Corner

It has been a fantastic few months getting to know your students. I feel very honored to be here at Natchez working with such great students and staff.

October is National Bullying Prevention Month.

Here are some links to help you understand and help your students: www.stopbullying.gov
www.americanspcc.org/school/bullying

Counseling lessons in the classroom will be focused on learning about what bullying is and the many issues surrounding bullying. We will be doing class and school activities to promote a safe a respectful school environment.

Parents, school staff, and other adults in the community can help kids prevent bullying by talking about it, building a safe school environment, and creating a community-wide bullying prevention strategy.

I will be sending home some coloring books and pamphlets that talk about bullying so please take the time to look over them and help your students understand the
