

Superhero Pride

Perseverance means never giving up. Superheroes don't give up because they have great passion and energy for their "cause".

What is something you have passion for and want to persevere in doing?

Respect: Superheroes respect themselves and others.

~What is one characteristic about yourself that you respect?

~Name one person in your life you respect and the characteristic about them that you respect.

Integrity: Superheroes do the right thing when no one is looking and are honest, even when it's hard.

~When is a time that you've showed integrity?

Diversity: Every great super hero has a sidekick.

~Who is your sidekick and what is his/her strength that is different from yours?

Excellence: Great heroes set goals to achieve greatness.

~What are two goals you have towards becoming better?

Spiderman Superhero Pride

Perseverance means never giving up. Superheroes don't give up because they have great passion and energy for their "cause".

~What is something you have passion for and want to persevere in doing? "I will always keep serving others because it makes their lives better."

Respect: Superheroes respect themselves and others.

~What is one characteristic about yourself that you respect? "I respect myself for fighting through the hard times."

~Name one person in your life you respect and the characteristic about them that you respect. "I respect my Uncle Ben because he always shared his wisdom with me and took time to teach me."

Integrity: Superheroes do the right thing when no one is looking and are honest, even when it's hard.

~When is a time that you've showed integrity? "I have a lot of power and even when I disagree with someone I don't use it for evil. I treat people how I want to be treated."

Diversity: Every great super hero has a sidekick.

~Who is your sidekick and what is his/her strength that is different from yours? "My sidekick is my Aunt May. Her superpower is that she is calm and takes time to think through things before she makes a decision."

Excellence: Great heroes set goals to achieve greatness.

~What are two goals you have towards becoming better? "My first goal is to continue to do good deeds for my community. My second goal is to become an Avenger."

Mrs. Polson Superhero Pride

Perseverance means never giving up. Superheroes don't give up because they have great passion and energy for their "cause".

~What is something you have passion for and want to persevere in doing? "I want to keep helping students reach their goals through education."

Respect: Superheroes respect themselves and others.

~What is one characteristic about yourself that you respect? "I respect that I try to be a better person every day."

~Name one person in your life you respect and the characteristic about them that you respect. "I respect my sister Julie because she is a nurse who works with cancer patients and is so empathetic and helpful."

Integrity: Superheroes do the right thing when no one is looking and are honest, even when it's hard.

~When is a time that you've showed integrity? "In my job I sometimes have to help others improve and that takes honest conversations."

Diversity: Every great super hero has a sidekick.

~Who is your sidekick and what is his/her strength that is different from yours? "My sidekick is Mrs. Garcia. One of her many strengths is patience. Even though she is interrupted 1,000 times a day, she always responds politely."

Excellence: Great heroes set goals to achieve greatness.

~What are two goals you have towards becoming better? "My first goal is to be in classrooms more often this year. My second goal is to think more like a scientist."