

WCSD Core 21st Century Learning Practices +Tech

Students use technology to create products of learning

Students use technology to share products of learning

Students collaborate through and with technology

Students use technology to access, select, and curate information

Students use technology to visualize learning and construct knowledge

Students contribute to a classroom culture and physical environment that support purposeful student choice and use of a variety of technologies

Students use technology to manage the learning process by planning and monitoring their own work

Students use technology to seek and obtain formative feedback on meaningful products of learning

Students use technology to support authentic work and assessments

Students use technology to connect with others outside the classroom

Students use technology purposefully to achieve instructional outcomes

Students and teacher engage as co-learners; teacher serves as an activator of learning

