

YEARBOOK

WITH

MRS. ANNAND

WHAT WE DO:

- Engage in a Fun and Supportive Class Community: Collaborate with classmates, share ideas, and contribute to a positive and inclusive atmosphere.
- Design and Build the Yearbook: Use creativity and teamwork to create a high-quality yearbook that reflects our school community.
- Capture Special Moments: Take clear and meaningful photographs that showcase the essence of events, people, and school life.
- Craft Meaningful Captions: Write engaging and accurate captions that complement the images and tell a story.
- Create Lasting Memories: Contribute to a publication that students and staff will cherish for years to come.

EXPECTATIONS:

- Quality Work Ethic: Remember, you're creating a book that students will spend nearly a hundred dollars on, and it will be seen by the entire school. Strive for excellence in every aspect of your work.
- Positive Attitude: This is an elective course designed to be both productive and enjoyable. Bring a positive mindset to help foster a fun and collaborative environment.
- Commitment to Extra Hours: Be prepared to dedicate some time outside of class hours to meet deadlines and complete important tasks.

ARE YOU A GOOD CANDIDATE?

Qualities of a good yearbook applicant:	Qualities avoided in a yearbook applicant:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Hard Working</li><li>• Professional</li><li>• Collaborative</li><li>• Creative</li><li>• Punctual (on time)</li><li>• Responsible</li><li>• Strong Academic Performance</li><li>• Good Time and Self-Management</li><li>• Open to feedback</li><li>• Trustworthy</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Frequently Absent/ Late</li><li>• Misses Deadlines</li><li>• Constantly turning in incomplete work</li><li>• Lots of missing assignments</li><li>• Unprofessional</li><li>• Poor time management</li><li>• Inconsistent in fulfilling commitments</li><li>• Resistant to feedback</li><li>• Questionable integrity</li></ul>

A message from Mrs. Annand:

Don't let any of these qualities deter you from signing up for yearbook. However, please keep in mind that we are creating and publishing a book. I need students who are committed and ready to work with me to bring this project to life. If you are willing and confident that you will complete your share of the work, please scan the QR code and fill out the form!

