

1st Quarter Literary Device Challenge

1. Go to <https://literarydevices.net>
2. On this website you will find over 130 different literary devices; you need to select no less than 10 devices to investigate. You can select more than 10 if you wish.
3. You will create a Personal Literary Device Book with these 10+ literary devices. Keep in mind you will be adding to this book each quarter of the school year.
4. For each Literary Device you select, you will need to create a section that includes:
 - a. An 'official' definition
 - b. A 'personal' definition by you
 - c. Three (3) examples of this literary device as found in any of our 1st quarter class reading (poems, short stories, class novels, and your independent reading).
 - d. Each example must include:
 - a. Example evidence from the text including book title and page number (if possible)
 - b. Explanation of how this literary device enhances the reader's understanding of the author's message
 - c. Explanation of how this literary device helps progress the story and/or message being told
 - e. The presentation of each Literary Device should be creative and original so that the presentation itself shows engagement in how you are learning about this device.
 - f. Additionally, the book should have an overall theme that ties all your ideas together. You should have no less than 10 literary devices in your Personal Literary Device Book for the first quarter.

Challenge: On October 10th, there will be a Literary Device Trivia Contest with extra credit points!!!!
