

parts of SPEECH

noun

person, place, thing or idea definition often starts with

<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
----------------------	----------------------	----------------------

suffix hints:

<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

verb

action, state or occurrence definition always starts with

<input type="text"/>

suffix hints:

<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

adjective

words that modify or describe a noun

suffix hints:

<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

adverb

words that modify or describe a verb, adjective or other adverb

suffix hint:

<input type="text"/>

beware

of exceptions:
check the definition
and use your brain!

apply it

Fill in the story with your choices for the parts of speech designated. Then, color the box with the same color as above.

Some students might compare this class to a (n.). Me, I think it's a (adj.) class. Because of the AMAZING teacher, I'm starting to (v.) (adv.).